According to official news from Kien Giang Province, a new route will be opened soon for the tourists to enjoy the beautiful sea view in the southwest sea.

A glamorous high speed surface ship is to satisfy demands of 300 tourists twice a week over a Viet Nam - Cambodia - Thailand route.

Departing from Kien Giang Province's Ha Tien town, the ship will pass Sihanoukville, the port city of Cambodia, before arriving at Thailand's ecological tourist area in Chanthaburi Province.

Government departments are now trying to raise VND10 billion (US$625,000) in investment capital for upgrading the ship and material facilities for the route

This route is being developed under an agreement between Viet Nam, Cambodia and Thailand after a multipartite conference in Kien Giang Province over October 24-25.

The route's operators plan to inaugurate the new route at the end of the year.
